From London

Barnet is the northern-most area of London, located 1 mile from the M25/A1 Junction.

If coming from the City, take the A1/Aldersgate northbound from the Barbican towards Islington and Archway. If coming from the West End, take the A400/Tottenham Court Road northbound towards Euston and Camden Town. Follow the A400 through Camden Town, Kentish Town and Tufnell Park until Archway, where the A400 meets the A1.

At Archway, continue on the A1/Archway Road until it merges with the A41/Watford Way, after which continue on the A1/A41 northbound. At Apex Corner, where the A1 and A41 split, take the 3rd exit, A1 North. At the following junction, Stirling Corner, take the last exit onto the A411/Barnet Road, towards Arkley and Barnet. Follow this road until you reach Barnet. Our offices are located on the A411/Wood Street, on the right hand side of the road, 150 yards after the mini-roundabout.

From outside of London

Barnet is easily accessible from all major motorways via the M25. Once on the M25, exit the motorway at Junction 23, A1(M) North and A1 South. Take the A1 South, and at Stirling Corner, take the 1st exit, A411/Barnet Road, towards Arkley and Barnet. Follow this road until you reach Barnet. Our offices are located on the A411/Wood Street, on the right hand side of the road, 150 yards after the mini-roundabout.

By public transport

Barnet has excellent public transport links. If travelling on the underground, we are located 500 yards from High Barnet underground station on the Northern Line. Once you arrive at High Barnet underground station, exit the building and turn right, heading up the pathway. At the top of the pathway continue ahead, and cross the road onto the left-hand side of the road. Continue northbound, away from the underground station. After 300 yards, the road will split, with a church located in the middle. Follow the left hand road, Wood Street. We are located a further 200 yards, on the left hand side after Manor Road.

If you are travelling by suburban rail, the closest station is New Barnet. Outside New Barnet station, take the 107 bus, which commences its route at New Barnet, towards Edgware. The bus will pass the Odeon cinema, go under a green railway bridge, and then up a hill. At the top of the hill, the road will split where a church is located in the middle, and the bus will continue to the left onto Wood Street. Request the bus stops at the stop after the road splits, outside Barnet Museum. Once you have come off the bus, continue in the same direction as the bus, cross Manor Road, and we are located on the left hand side.
